Registration Open for Sixth Annual Fort2Fort Five Mile Challenge

MACKINAC ISLAND, MICH. — Registration is open for the sixth annual Fort2Fort Five Mile Challenge, presented by the Pink Pony Mackinac, scheduled for Saturday, May 13. This challenging yet enjoyable course takes racers from Fort Mackinac up to Fort Holmes and back to Fort Mackinac, providing a course full of stunning views and historic sites.

The race will begin with a 9:00 a.m. rifle salute fired by historic interpreters at Fort Mackinac. Runners will head out the North Sally Port and make their way to Arch Rock, following paved roads and trails, past Sugar Loaf rock, Skull Cave and the cemeteries, and up to Fort Holmes, Mackinac Island's highest point. Runners will then head toward the Governor's Summer Residence and next to Fort Mackinac at the Huron Road Pavilion. Aid stations and restrooms will be on the course.

The entry fee for this race is $45 until March 31, and $50 April 1-May 12. All participants will receive a t-shirt, medal, logoed headband, entry into Fort Mackinac, The Richard & Jane Manoogian Mackinac Art Museum, Biddle House, featuring the Mackinac Island Native American Museum, and Benjamin Blacksmith Shop. Special awards will be available for overall and masters division male and female winners, as well as the top three finishers in each age division.

Refreshments will be available after the race for all participants at the Huron Road Pavilion, next to Fort Mackinac.

As noted above, all racers receive free entry into Fort Mackinac, The Richard & Jane Manoogian Mackinac Art Museum, Biddle House, featuring the Mackinac Island Native American Museum, and Benjamin Blacksmith Shop throughout the day. The Tea Room, located inside Fort Mackinac, will be open for lunch from 11:00 a.m. – 3:00 p.m. providing stunning views of Mackinac Island and the Straits of Mackinac.

Further information, such as registration, age divisions and information on ferry tickets and accommodations can be found at www.runmackinac.com. Additional pictures available upon request. A downloadable version of this release can be found here.
