It's a Star Spangled Fourth of July at Fort Mackinac

MACKINAW CITY, MICH. — Historic and iconic Fort Mackinac will be decked out in patriotic finery with banners, flags and bunting for A Star Spangled Fourth of July, this July 4, with games available starting at 3:30 p.m. and a special program at 4:00 p.m.

It will be an 1880s Independence Day, with a reading of the Declaration of Independence, the raising of the colors, and games on the parade ground including foot and relay races, catch and baseball, and tug of war. Guests are encouraged to join the party and participate in the games.

After the games and reading of the Declaration of Independence, the 'fireworks' begin. There will be a 38-gun salute, honoring the 1880s states of the union, followed by the finale of a cannon salute in honor of the holiday.

"Fort Mackinac is the perfect venue for celebrating the 4th of July," said Steve Brisson, Mackinac State Historic Parks director. "This is one of the most exciting days to visit the fort during the summer. The 4th of July events allow guests to participate in activities that really tie into the history and meaning of Independence Day."

The Tea Room Restaurant, operated by Grand Hotel, will be open throughout the day, with lunch served from 11:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. Snacks and beverages will be available until 7:00 p.m.

All special programming is included with regular admission to Fort Mackinac ($16.25/adults, $9.75/child (5-12), and free for kids under 5). Guests are welcome to come back to Fort Mackinac starting at 9:00 p.m. to watch fireworks.

Funding for many Mackinac State Historic Parks programs comes from Mackinac Associates, friends preserving and sharing Mackinac's heritage.
